From the Chaplain (July 2007)

Dear Friends,

Who are you?? I have a hunch that most of you would answer that question by telling me your name. Or perhaps you would tell me what your occupation was or the roles that you filled in life.

The crux of our identity however is found in God, our Father and what He says about us. So, just in case you ever wonder who you are, permit me to refresh your mind.

Genesis 1:27	You are created in God's image
Deuteronomy 7:6	You are chosen and are God's treasured possession
Joshua 1:9	You are not alone – you need not be terrified
Psalms 17:8	You are the apple of God's eye
Psalms 103:2-5	You are forgiven, healed, and crowned with compassion
Isaiah 43:4	You are precious, honored and loved
Zephaniah 3:17	You are delighted in
John 15:9	You are loved
John 15:16	You are chosen and appointed to bear fruit
Romans 8:1-2	You are not condemned, you have been set free

Who are you? It is in the promises of God that we find our identity. You are someone who is incredibly awesome and loved eternally by the God of creation. I pray that you will let God's perspective of you define your identity and living!

In the joy of the Lord,

Chaplain Sandy Anenson
