

Dear Friends,

Most of our days are ordinary days. Days without fanfare, days that to most are mundane. I really like delightfully, ordinary days that allow us to bet ourselves. On ordinary days we have a peace and joy that turns us toward God.

God is just as present in the days that all run together, days when nothing really stands out, as he is in the extraordinary days. God is present in the routine, in fact God often reveals Himself to us in the midst of those ordinary days.

So often we tend to look for God in the grand and glorious – and certainly He is there. He is also present in the ordinary. God uses the ordinary to reveal Himself. He uses ordinary people to show Himself to the world. I so appreciate the verse from II Corinthians 4:7; “But we have this treasure in jars of clay to show that this all-surpassing power is from God and not from us.”

An author penned these words, “God is so great and so everywhere that even the ordinary is sacred.” Ordinary days, ordinary places, ordinary activities – He is there.” That is a good place to catch a glimpse of God.

I trust that you will appreciate the ordinary days of your lives and know that God will be present in those days and moments.

With joy,

Chaplain Sandy
