

January, 2009

Dear Friends,

*“Jesus is the same yesterday and today and forever.
- Hebrews 13:7*

As the door opens and we step into a new year –

We look behind us and we see the thread of God’s faithfulness woven into the fabric of our lives. Day by day, moment by moment His loving hand has sustained us and strengthened us.

We look around us and we see that we are surrounded by people who care for us, love us and encourage us on this journey of life. We are grateful for family, loved ones and friends who bring joy to our lives.

We look forward and we see that God goes before us. His love and protection are always present. And we can be assured that His promises and grace are more than sufficient for the living of our days.

We let the past rest, as we leave the broken in His hands. We step out into the future and into the New Year with Him.

A very Blessed New Year!

Chaplain Sandy

Chaplain Sandy Anenson